GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR RESTITUTION

Comes now the United States, by and through undersigned counsel, and moves the Court to enter an order before January 27, 2014, requiring Defendant Terrence Yarbrough to pay restitution to the victims in this case.

The United States filed under seal its position with respect to restitution on October 22, 2013. (Doc. 289.). The Court sentenced the Defendant on October 29, 2013, but deferred on the issue of restitution to allow the Defendant time to respond to the government's position. (Doc. 291.). The Defendant has yet to file a response.

Restitution is mandatory in this case. 18 U.S.C. § 1593. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(d)(5), the final restitution determination must occur within 90 days of sentencing, which is January 27, 2014. Accordingly, the government asks the Court to issue an order before that date.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD L. STANTON, III
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
